

Prof. Piotr H. Skarzynski, MD, PhD, MSc, conducts scientific work at the World Hearing Center of the Institute of Physiology and Pathology of Hearing, the Institute of Sensory Organs, and the Medical University of Warsaw.

Specialist in ENT, pediatric ENT, audiology and phoniatics, and public health. Participated in the 3rd Stakeholders Consultation meeting, during which the World Hearing Forum of WHO was announced. Member of the WHO Roster of Experts on Digital Health, Board Member and Institutional Representative of ISfTeH, Past President of the International Advisory Board of AAO-HNS, member of the Congress and Meeting Department of EAONO, Vice-President of the Hearing Group, Auditor of EFAS, member of the Facial Nerve Stimulation Steering Committee, and Board Secretary of the Polish Society of Otorhinolaryngologists, Phoniatrists and Audiologists. Member of the AAO-HNS Hearing Committee. Member of the American Neurotology Society (since 2019), member of the Consultant Committee of International Experts of CPAM-VBMS (by special invitation), honorary member of ORL Danube Society and Société Française d'Oto-Rhino-Laryngologie. Corresponding member of the German Society of Otorhinolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery. Expert and member of numerous national organizations, an expert and reviewer of international and national projects and scientific journals.

He has participated in numerous conferences of the American Otological Society since 2011. He has delivered over 95 lectures and presentations at conferences and congresses across the United States since 2012. He manages national and international projects related to hearing screening programmes, implantable hearing devices, telemedicine, and e-health across numerous European, Asian, and African countries.